A Note of Hope from the Rector: Memories and Dreams, Prayers and Promises

By The Rev. Jenny Scott-Jones

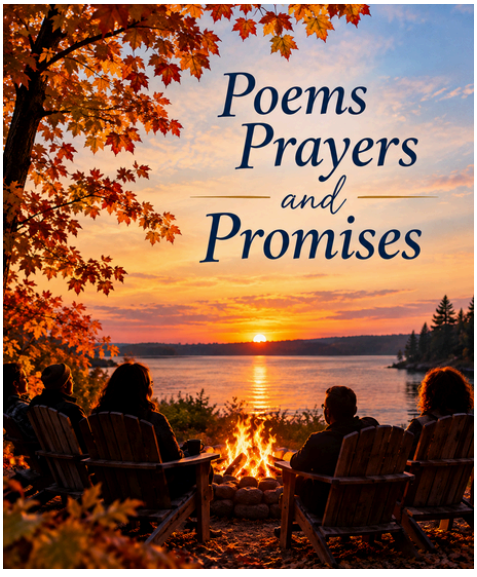

For over 25 years, people have been gathering as the Iona-Hope Family to share in prayer and worship, discipleship, outreach, and fellowship, or as John Denver might have called it: "poems, prayers, and promises." What started in a bridge club with an alligator hanging over the altar has changed and adapted many times as seasons come and go, but our purpose stays the same.

The season of Autumn is often a time to look back, recall and remember where we have been and respond with thanksgiving for "all the memories we share." All members of the Iona-Hope Family share in this quarter-of-a-century collective history whether or not we have been attending IH for 25 years or 25 days. These shared memories shape us – who we are, what we do, and why we exist. Beyond Iona-Hope we have shared memories with the one holy, catholic and apostalic church. It is because of those who have gone before us that we are here today. And we give thanks for all the ways we are blessed through the faithful service of our spiritual ancestors.

Each day, every moment, we are given opportunities to be part of the truly intergenerational work of the Church. We are, at this very moment, being woven into the fabric of the collective memories of the Church. Someday our heirs will be looking back at us and giving thanks for the ways our faithful service blesses them.

What do we give thanks for? What do we dream for those who will come after us? What is our daily response as we remain faithful both to our collective memories and dreams?

How sweet it is to love someone, how right it is to care
How long it's been since yesterday, what about tomorrow?
And what about our dreams and all the memories we share?

Lectio Divina-By Sandy Blaine

Steve Garnaas-Holmes
Unfolding Light
www.unfoldinglight.net

1 John 3:1-3 Taken from the Epistle for All Saints Weekend
See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

The Steps of Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina is an ancient Christian practice of meditative Scripture reading. It shifts the goal from studying for information to allowing God's word to transform your heart. The four simple, unhurried steps are detailed below:

1. Lectio (Read) Read it slowly and attentively, listening for a word or phrase that captures your attention.
2. Meditation (Reflect) Read the passage again. Ponder the word or phrase that stood out to you. Repeat it softly in your mind, allowing it to interact with your life, thoughts, and memories.
3. Oratio (Respond) Let the Scripture naturally lead you into a conversation with God. Speak to Him honestly about what you just read, whether that means offering thanks, bringing Him a struggle, or asking for grace.
4. Contemplation (Rest) Read the passage one final time. Sit in silent, receptive rest in God's presence, letting go of words and allowing His love to transform.

Monthly Prayer From the Book Of Common Prayer-By The Rev. Jenny Scott-Jones

~ A Focus On Gratitude ~
Monthly Prayer From the Book Of Common Prayer
By The Rev. Jenny Scott-Jones

I suspect if we pause and think of all that we are grateful for, it's not too hard to make a list. Yet turning a list into a prayer may not be easy for some. Our Book of Common Prayer offers a variety of prayers to express to God our gratitude. A short and far from exhaustive list includes: the General Thanksgiving at the end of Morning and Evening Prayer (page 101), Psalm 100 (page 729), Psalm 138 (page 793) and a whole section of Thanksgiving Prayers (pages 836-841).

As we enter a season of reflection on how we are good stewards of Iona-Hope, let us pray together a prayer of thanksgiving "for the mission of the church" (page 838).

Almighty God, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to reconcile the world to yourself: We praise and bless you for those whom you have sent in the power of the Spirit to preach the Gospel to all nations. We thank you that in all parts of the earth a community of love has been gathered together by their prayers and labors, and that in every place your servants call upon your Name; for the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours for ever. Amen.

Monthly Prayer for Our Small Groups and Ministries: The Hospitality Ministry

Iona-Hope has a group of faithful individuals who continually do important works of service to provide times of fellowship around food and refreshments. Whether it is coffee hour after the 9:30am Sunday Service, hosting a reception, or coordinating an Iona-Hope Family meal, this is an important ministry for the life of our community.

This ministry creates space for relationships to form and flourish, whether participants are new to Iona-Hope or have been a part of the family for 25 years. Hospitality time fosters conversations that span across the diversity that makes up our family and allows us to live out our motto: "All Are Welcome!"

Ardis Uberti, the dedicated leader of this ministry invites us to remember that Hospitality extends beyond coffee hour as she writes:

> "The definition of Hospitality is: 'Personal & Social: The act of making people feel welcome, safe, and comfortable in a home, community, or social setting.'
> We have many opportunities to make "Hospitality" happen at Iona Hope and it is the main reason that I became and have been a faithful member of Iona Hope for well over a decade and a half. We have always been a church that takes time and effort to make people feel welcome, safe and comfortable and I'm proud to be a very small part of the effort. Coffee hour is a small part of outreach because friendly conversation after church service is a happy time to show caring to one another.
> It is my opinion that Iona Hope needs to step up its efforts of being even more hospitable. Please make an effort to extend a kind word and send caring thoughts, it is the way of Christ."

Let us pray:
Dear God, as you declare each of us precious in your sight, may our Hospitality Ministry have your blessing as they minister to us, one at a time. In addition, may they serve each visitor as though it might be you in disguise and let each one feel welcomed and valued. Thank you for those who are willing to share a part of themselves to serve in this ministry. May they be blessed as they bless us. In Jesus' name. Amen.

One Witness-The Diocesan Convention- By Vicky Dawson

ONE WITNESS 2026

58th Diocesan Convention Reflections-By Vicky Dawson

My very first diocesan convention filled me with…

Joy,
Excitement,
Worry (of the church's future),
Holiness,
Hope in our Youth Ministry,
Hope in the Power of God's Infinite Love, and
A growing belief in "we are a church in transition".

What stood out to me…

Holy and healing music and song permeated the halls with a Choir and Father Josh Bales (priest therapist and songwriter),
Workshops were Transforming Communities,
Embracing Differences, and Forming Disciples and Developing Leaders.

The weekend provided for…

A ministry fair,
Bishop Scharf's vision for the church's future in SWF,
Plans for Day Spring,
Church of the Apostles becoming a mission,
The naming and blessing of our Youth Ministry members,
Election,
Business,
Meeting new people and sharing our own witness of the love of Jesus in our sphere, and
Oh, the holy space of Evensong.

The Holy Eucharist has me strongly wanting to be a delegate to convention on October 22-23, 2027.

THE FUTURE IS POSITIVE

A Beloved October Tradition-By Margo Farrara

On Sunday, October 4th, the annual Blessing of the Animals took place at Iona-Hope. Over 25 pups and kitties, along with their parents, attended. We also had numerous attendees with photos of their pets, and of course, Mariann's chicken, was with us as well. We even had a family reunion between 3 kitties - Oake, Elme and Teake!

Mother Jenny led the group in lovely prayers and then went to each one to deliver a personal blessing. Everyone behaved, including the humans! Our tradition of this Animal Blessing goes back to our beginnings and is always a joy to participate in. We would love to have you join us next year when our celebration of All of God's Creatures continues.

Hope Chest

Come & See!-By Margaret Carr

On a Sunday morning in October I noticed a gentleman that I didn't recognize arrive for our 9:30 A.M. service. As soon as I introduced myself and learned who he was, I grabbed Debbie Prather as soon as she entered the sanctuary Sunday morning to tell her. It was Dan Baseman, the custodian at the Bridge Club and Plaza. He first met the Rev. John Adler when John was rolling the piano to the bridge club for services and Dan said to him "Where are you going with that piano?!"and John said his famous words "Come and see!" Well he did, and attended services at the bridge club as well as in the Adler Gathering Place. He had never been in the church sanctuary once it was built!

A Look Back!

June Lockhart made several unique pieces for the Adult Living Facilities Ministry at Iona-Hope. These small paten/chalice combinations were dubbed "chip and dip" combos. They made it easy for one person to administer Eucharist to a large, immobile group. Thank you to Trish Kyser for sharing this!

A Note From Your Nutty Family-By Sciurus Carolinensis

Dear Humans,
We hope you are well and in good health. This letter has been a long time coming. For many years we have been appreciating your kind and loving addition to our little bit of land here on Gladiolus Drive. Our ancestors had hesitation when you first moved into the community and began building your worship space.
Our type has always worshiped from the tree branches and could not understand the need for such extravagant buildings for such a purpose. But we quickly learned that you Hopians were kind and friendly and shared the space with a genuine love and respect for all of God's creation. We appreciate the outdoor gathering space and labyrinth you built as it gives us another opportunity to come closer to you and worship and just be together.

You recently added some lovely bird feeders. Thank you. While we know they are primarily intended for our winged buddies, we are grateful that you don't mind us sharing the crumbs from the "table." We are especially grateful for those who lovingly distribute generous servings of peanuts. We give thanks to God for bringing you into our little corner of creation and we give you thanks for these friendly gestures and for being amazing neighbors.

We know that when you say "All Are Welcome" you mean even us squirrels!
Blessings, Sciurus carolinensis

P.S. We wanted to share that we are open to the idea of you spending more worship and fellowship time outside, especially if it includes music.

October Interfaith-By Margaret Carr

October 22nd was another great evening of Interfaith discussion here at Iona-Hope. The topic this evening was "What are the core beliefs of our religion—and what does it teach and require of us?" We heard wonderful Christian, Jewish, and Muslim perspectives, leading to a truly meaningful and engaging evening of conversation. Grateful for our community and these shared spaces of understanding and connection! Our next meeting will be in January 2027. For additional information please reach out to Margaret Carr at MediaDirector@Ionahope.org.

Vestry Update: Discernment at Iona-Hope-By John Hufnagel

The vestry at Iona-Hope has begun a process of prayerful discernment to explore our present mission and to listen for where God may be calling us in the years ahead. Our ultimate goal is to develop a long-term strategy for Iona-Hope for the next five to ten years. Rev. Gail Avery led us through the first two sessions, and Mother Jenny has been guiding us since then. This process invites us to listen carefully to the Holy Spirit, to one another, and to the needs of our congregation and the wider community.

As part of this work, we have interviewed parishioners and leaders of our small groups to hear their hopes, concerns, and visions for Iona-Hope's future. We are also drawing on ideas from Mixed Ecology by Dwight Zscheile and Blair Pogue, which encourages us to consider how the church might explore different ways of being and serving in response to God's call. Our discernment challenges us to look beyond simply maintaining what we have today and to remain open to new possibilities for ministry and mission.

Through prayer, listening, study, and conversation, we hope to develop a shared vision that honors Iona-Hope's current strengths while discerning new opportunities to serve God and our community. We recognize that this is a journey that requires patience, openness, and trust, and we seek to move forward together, guided by the Holy Spirit.

Important Information from the Finance Committee-By Helen Gierke

November is stewardship month! The ministries of Iona-Hope Episcopal Church are many and varied, and your support makes them all possible. As the end of the year approaches, our goal is to end it "in the black;" you can help assure that happens. As you complete your pledge for the year, consider making an additional gift to the operating fund. You should have received information about options for donations from IRA's and 401-K's in the recent mailing.

During the month you'll hear from church members, sing some special hymns and songs, and have the opportunity to complete an Estimate of Giving form for next year. These numbers are critical to planning our budget and activities for 2027, and to assure that Iona-Hope continues to be a loving, caring, Body of Christ in Fort Myers. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

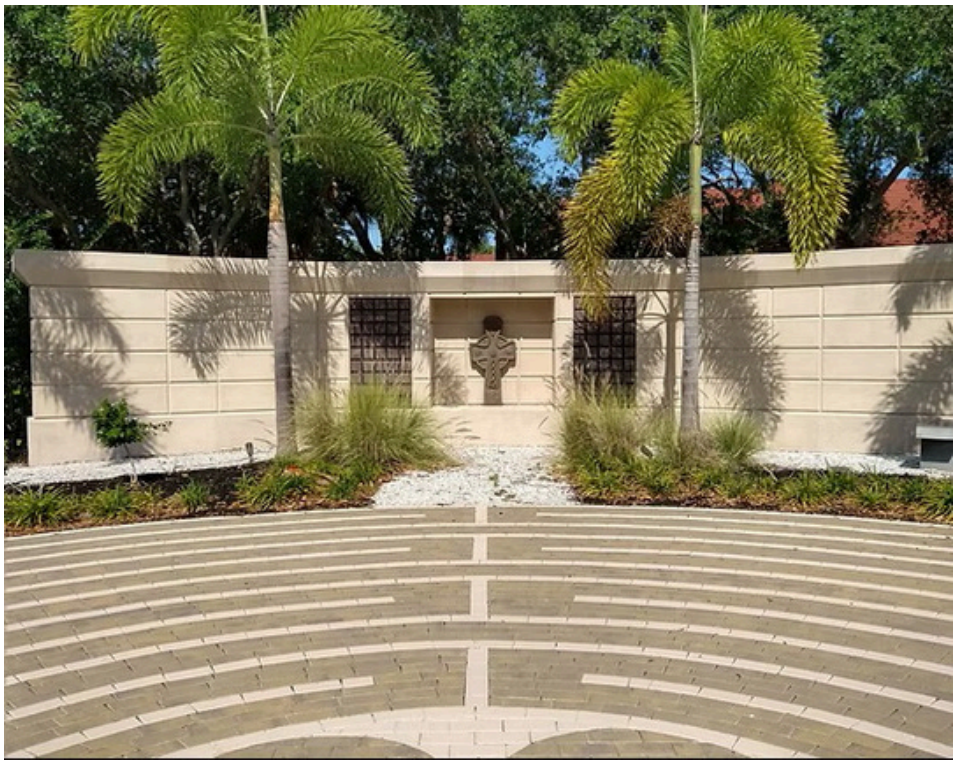

OCTOBER ATTENDANCE

October 2025: 92
October 2024: 108

COLUMBARIUM NICHE SALE

From October 15th -December 1st

What is a final resting place? A final resting place is a permanent, secure, sacred, and public location for the placement of a body or cremated remains. It is usually marked by a plaque or headstone with the name and birth and death dates of the person who lived. Have you thought about your final resting place?

Iona-Hope has reduced pricing on our columbarium niches. For these months only Niches will be $1300 for a single and $1500 for a double.

Our regular prices are $1500 for a single and $1700 for a double.

For additional information, or if you have any questions, please contact the church office at 239-454-4778 or email office@ionahope.org

Sharing With Our Neighbors – Gladiolus Food Pantry Thanksgiving Meal Drive

Each year at this time the Gladiolus Food Pantry hosts a drive through meal distribution for Thanksgiving. Last year over 1,500 complete meals were shared with our neighbors in the community.

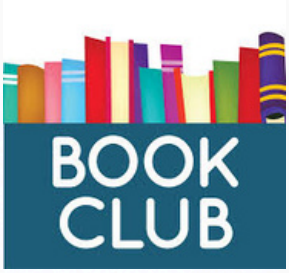

GFP is grateful for the generosity of their partners, who enable them to meet the needs of this growing ministry.

Once again, we are collecting donations for Thanksgiving meals: canned cranberries/cranberry sauce, stuffing mix, mashed potato mix, gravy mix and, most of all, frozen turkeys. Thank you in advance for supporting the Pantry in this season of gratitude.

Iona-Hope will host its annual Turkey Drive for the Pantry before the service on Saturday, November 14th and between services on Sunday, November 15th. Monetary donations are also welcomed. Checks can be made out to Gladiolus Food Pantry; write "Iona-Hope" on the memo line.

The November Book Club selection is The Correspondent by Virginia Evans.

"Imagine, the letters one has sent out into the world, the letters received back in turn, are like the pieces of a magnificent puzzle. . . . Isn't there something wonderful in that, to think that a story of one's life is preserved in some way, that this very letter may one day mean something, even if it is a very small thing, to someone?"

Filled with knowledge that only comes from a life fully lived, The Correspondent is a gem of a novel about the power of finding solace in literature and connection with people we might never meet in person. It is about the hubris of youth and the wisdom of old age, and the mistakes and acts of kindness that occur during a lifetime.

Sybil Van Antwerp has throughout her life used letters to make sense of the world and her place in it. Most mornings, around half past ten, Sybil sits down to write letters—to her brother, to her best friend, to the president of the university who will not allow her to audit a class she desperately wants to take, to Joan Didion and Larry McMurtry to tell them what she thinks of their latest books, and to one person to whom she writes often yet never sends the letter.
Sybil expects her world to go on as it always has—a mother, grandmother, wife, divorcee, distinguished lawyer, she has lived a very full life. But when letters from someone in her past force her to examine one of the most painful periods of her life, she realizes that the letter she has been writing over the years needs to be read and that she cannot move forward until she finds it in her heart to offer forgiveness. Sybil Van Antwerp's life of letters might be "a very small thing," but she also might be one of the most memorable characters you will ever read.

We will meet to discuss The Correspondent from 12:30-2:00 P.M. on Friday, November 13th in the Adler Gathering Place.
Please call Helen Sadler 239-218-5466 if you have any questions

Calling All Readers!

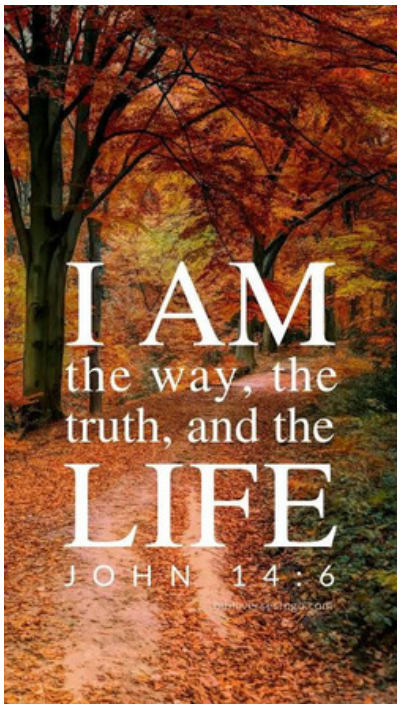

As we begin a new season, we are extending the invitation to all to consider serving the Iona-Hope family by being a reader (fancy word: lector) during our weekend services. While we hope to continue to hear from many of our currently beloved volunteers, we also hope to have some new voices in the mix.

If you are interested in either continuing on as a reader or becoming a new reader, please email: ihopereaders@gmail.com to share your interest and join us on Sunday, November 15th at 10:45 A.M. for a brief 45-minute workshop. This will be a time to review some best practices, as well as discuss some new procedures, and most importantly a time to joyfully celebrate this important work that is offered up to the Iona-Hope family.

Bible Study With Rev. Gierke!

Via Media: walking an intentional path between ordinary time and sacred history, following Jesus' life.

In John 14:6, as Jesus spoke with the disciples on the last night, He said, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life."

When we seek to grow in our relationship with God, the Way is not always easy to find. We know the Way is revealed in the Word, both written and in the person of Christ, which is also the source of Truth, and ultimately eternal Life.

Join us as we walk the Via Media (Latin for "middle way") path through the church year and the life of Christ, beginning with Advent. We will use Scripture and the Book of Common Prayer as our guides along the way. No experience necessary; Christ invites us all to walk with Him.

Initially, we will meet on the first and third Fridays of each month, beginning November 20th, at 10:30 a.m. in the Church Sanctuary, and will likely continue meeting through Eastertide. Bring a Bible if you have one.
Dewey Gierke, a retired pastor of 30 years, will lead the group. Dewey has a Master of Divinity from Bangor Theological Seminary and a Doctor of Ministry from Hartford Seminary.

PREPARING THE STABLE, PREPARING THE HEART

An Advent Retreat Day

December 5, 2026

There are so many ways to prepare for Christmas. Gifts to buy. Cards to write out and mail. Cookies to bake. Presents to wrap. Menus to plan . . . But the most important preparations we can make as we anticipate the celebration of the birth of Christ, is the preparation of the heart. This Advent, why not take time to join Rev. John Danner for an Advent Quiet Day? John will lead us in using music, art, meditation, silence, story and scripture to help us settle into a time to focus on the deeper realities of the season. Our day will conclude with lunch and a time of worship.

John is a retired pastor in the United Church of Christ, and a spiritual director. After forty-five years of ordained ministry in parish settings in the Northeast and here in Southwest Florida, he retired and is a Pastor Emeritus at Sanibel Congregational United Church of Christ. Before he moved to North Carolina, he was active here at Iona where he led retreat days several times and has been called on to preach. He has also often preached at several UCC churches in the area.

John is the author of Angels Dancing on the Roof, a collection of seasonal stories, and has contributed to several publications, including The Christian Century and The Upper Room.
